

Net Neutrality is essential for all consumers, businesses and for the protection of free speech. The internet is a utility and should remain that way. I strongly support Net Neutrality backed by Title 2.